About the Instructor:

Leunus van Lieren is an internationally recognized breeder, rider and trainer. Owner and founder of Hexagon Farms in Schore, The Netherlands, Mr. van Lieren was a member of the Dutch B team 2003 and 2004 with the stallion Hexagon Louisville. He is the trainer and coach of his son, Laurens van Lieren, winner of the FEI European Championship for Young Riders and currently a member of the Dutch Senior A team. Mr. van Lieren is a trainer at his dressage facility not only of international riders, but also of riders and horses of all levels and experiences

Mr. van Lieren came to Wyndham Oaks for his first clinic in the United States last year and we are delighted to have him back. He has expressed interest in teaching in the States on a regular basis in order to aid riders and horses develop to the best of their abilities. The clinic is open to riders and horses of all levels. Mr. van Lieren may be viewed riding and instructing on the website DressageClinic.com. Please call Mary Lou for username and passcode.
